C. LANDLORD'S REMEDIES:

- Failure to Pay Rent. If TENANT does not pay the rent or other sums due LANDLORD, LANDLORD may give TENANT written notice demanding payment. If the rent is not paid within the time specified in the notice (NOT LESS THAN FIVE (5) BUSINESS DAYS) after receipt of that notice, LANDLORD may terminate this Rental Agreement. - 2. Failure to Comply with this Rental Agreement. If TENANT fails to comply with any of the terms of this Rental Agreement, including damaging the Unit or violating any of the house rules, laws, or other restrictions, LANDLORD will give TENANT written notice of the violation. If TENANT is absent from the Unit for twenty (20) continuous days or more, without written notice, and has not paid the rent, LANDLORD shall consider the Unit abandoned. If TENANT wrongfully quits, abandons or otherwise moves out of the Unit and leaves any personal property, which LANDLORD determines to be of value, LANDLORD may store, sell, or donate said personal property, but LANDLORD must first make reasonable efforts to notify TENANT of the identity and location of, and LANDLORD's intent to sell or donate said personal property, by mailing notice to TENANT's forwarding address, an address TENANT designated for the purpose of notification, or, if neither of those means are available, to TENANT's previous known address. After fifteen (15) days, LANDLORD may advertise the items for sale or may donate the items to a charitable organization. Any proceeds from a sale, after deduction of accrued rent and costs for storage and sale (including advertising costs), will be held for thirty (30) days and afterwards will be forfeited to LANDLORD. If LANDLORD determines the abandoned personal property is of no value, LANDLORD may dispose of said personal property without further notice or liability.
- 5. Holdover Tenancy. If TENANT stays in the Unit after this Rental Agreement's term expires, TENANT will be a HOLDOVER TENANT, and may be liable for twice the monthly rent under this Rental Agreement, on a prorated daily basis, for the first sixty (60) days that TENANT is a HOLDOVER TENANT. Staying in the Unit after this Rental Agreement, includes, but is not limited to, TENANT'S failure or refusal to do the following BY THE DAY TENANT'S TENANCY ENDS: to return all the keys to the Unit to LANDLORD, to complete all repairs, to remove all of TENANT'S personal items, and to clean the Unit. LANDLORD may also go to court to obtain possession of the Unit at any time during the first sixty (60) days of TENANT'S holdover. If LANDLORD does not go to court during the first sixty (60) days of TENANT'S holdover and does not enter into a new Rental Agreement at the end of that period, TENANT will be a MONTH-TO-MONTH TENANT and TENANT must pay LANDLORD the monthly rent under the prior Rental Agreement beginning at the end of the first sixty (60) days of holdover.

D. INVENTORY & CONDITION:

- 1. When TENANT Moves In. LANDLORD will inspect and inventory the Unit and the items in it (including fixtures, furnishings, appliances, and other personal property). LANDLORD will prepare a written PROPERTY CONDITION FORM detailing the condition of the property and any items in the Unit when TENANT moves in. TENANT and LANDLORD will both sign the form.
- 2. When TENANT Moves Out. TENANT must remove all TENANT'S personal items. If TENANT leaves any personal items behind, TENANT must pay for any storage and other costs, including advertising costs, involved in selling or disposing them. TENANT must leave the Unit in the same condition as when TENANT moved in. It is TENANT'S duty to have the Unit in clean and proper condition ON THE DAY TENANT'S TENANCY ENDS, NOT ON ANY LATER DAY. TENANT must have the same items in the Unit that were present when TENANT moved in; and TENANT must leave these items in the same condition, except for normal wear and tear. If there is any disagreement, the signed PROPERTY CONDITION FORM will be treated as correct. Rent is still due in accordance with this Rental Agreement, even if it is only a prorated amount. Tenant will be charged rent until all repairs/replacements/cleaning are completed and utilities must be on during this time. Tenant will return all keys and cards (including storage and mailbox). Failure to return the keys will result in LANDLORD re-keying the locks and replacing the keys at TENANT'S expense.

E. LANDLORD'S RESPONSIBILITIES:

- 1. Possession. LANDLORD will give TENANT possession of the Unit in its accepted condition at the beginning of the rental term. Any services and appliances supplied by LANDLORD, LANDLORD will maintain. LANDLORD will not be liable for any interruption in these services or appliances which are beyond LANDLORD'S control. TENANT may not end this Rental Agreement because services or appliances are interrupted.
- 2. Right to Enter. LANDLORD will give TENANT at least two (2) days notice before entering the Unit; and enter only during reasonable hours, except in case of emergency. LANDLORD may enter the Unit in order to: inspect; make needed or agreed upon repairs; decorate, change or improve the Unit; supply services as agreed; and show it to anyone who may want to buy, rent, or finance it. LANDLORD will not abuse this right or use it to harass TENANT. TENANT shall not unreasonably withhold TENANT'S consent. LANDLORD has no other right of entry, except by court order, or if it appears that TENANT has abandoned the Unit.
- Refund of Security Deposit. LANDLORD must return TENANT'S deposit, MINUS DEDUCTIONS, not later than fourteen (14) calendar days after the termination of this Rental Agreement. LANDLORD must give TENANT a written statement at that time explaining any deductions. Deductions can be made in accordance with Paragraph D2 above and can pay for LANDLORD'S damages caused by TENANT quitting the Unit wrongfully.
- 4. Rent Increase. If TENANT is on a Fixed Rental Agreement, LANDLORD may not increase the rent prior to the ending date. If TENANT is on a Month-to-Month Rental Agreement, LANDLORD must give TENANT written notice forty-five (45) days prior to any rent increase; TENANT must pay the increased rent or give a twenty-eight (28) day written notice to terminate.

- Service of Notices. If LANDLORD must give any notice to TENANT, LANDLORD can serve it on any TENANT. By serving one of the TENANTS, LANDLORD has given notice to all of the TENANTS. If LANDLORD cannot deliver a notice to TENANT, LANDLORD may post the notice in a conspicuous place on the Unit.
- Rental Conversion. If the Unit is to be demolished, converted to a condominium, LANDLORD must give TENANT written notice at least one hundred twenty (120) days in advance to terminate. TENANT may move at any time during the last one hundred twenty (120) days and shall notify LANDLORD of TENANT'S vacate date and pay a prorated rent until TENANT vacates the UNIT and satisfies the conditions of Standard Term D-2.
- F. RENTAL HISTORY: TENANT gives LANDLORD permission to provide rental history to other prospective Landlords.
- G. DAILY RATE: Daily rent is calculated using a thirty (30) day proration.
- MILITARY TENANTS: If TENANT receives military orders after execution of this Rental Agreement that require (i) TENANT'S change of н. permanent station (PCS) from a location on an island within Hawai'i to any location off-island or outside Hawai'i, or (ii) TENANT to deploy with a military unit or as an individual in support of a military operation for a period of not less than ninety (90) days, TENANT may end TENANT'S obligations under this Rental Agreement. To terminate this Rental Agreement, said military TENANT must deliver by hand, private business carrier, or mail with return receipt requested, written notice with a copy of the official orders to the LANDLORD. Oral notice is not sufficient. In the case of a fixed-term or a month-to-month term requiring monthly rents, the earliest termination date is thirty (30) days after the first date on which the next rental payment is due, following proper notification of termination of the Rental Agreement. For example, if rents are due on the first day of every month, and TENANT properly notifies LANDLORD on July 20th that TENANT wishes to terminate the Rental Agreement, the earliest termination date is September 1st (thirty (30) days after August 1st when the next rental payment was due after notice). In the case of all other term of lease, the termination of the Rental Agreement is effective on the last day of the month following the month in which proper notice is delivered to LANDLORD. The parties should refer to the Service Members Civil Relief Act for further guidance. Additionally, under Hawai'i Law, a servicemember TENANT who is ordered military duty for a period of ninety (90) days or more may terminate this Rental Agreement without an early termination penalty or liability for future rents if TENANT receives orders requiring vacating from civilian housing and move into on-post government quarters provided that: (1) the failure to move into on-post government quarters will result in a forfeiture of the TENANT's housing allowance, (2) TENANT's request to maintain their housing allowance is denied by his/her commanding officer, AND (3) for Rental Agreements of a term of one year or less TENANT submits at least thirty (30) days written notice or for a month-to-month term TENANT submits at least fifteen (15) days written notice to LANDLORD, along with the required evidentiary documents. Additionally, in the event a servicemember Tenant dies during active duty, TENANT's family may be afforded certain relief from the Rental Agreement as provided under Hawai'i law. The parties are strongly encouraged to refer to 2021 Haw. Act 57 (H.B. 1376) for further guidance. A servicemember TENANT who terminates this Rental Agreement before the expiration of its term shall receive a prorated portion of the Security Deposit after proper notice and termination under 2021 Haw. Act 19 (H.B. 391).

Certain additional rights and obligations may apply during the COVID Relief Period.
- 5. Conflict with the Landlord Tenant Code and Other Laws. If it is found that any part of this Rental Agreement or its terms conflict with the Landlord Tenant Code or any other Federal, State or County laws governing LANDLORD-TENANT relations, public health and safety, etc., then those laws will control; however, all other terms and conditions will still be valid and must be observed.
- 6. Sex Offender Registration ("Megan's Law"). Hawai'i has enacted a law requiring sex offenders to register with the Attorney General's office.
